

Transition to Work

Sometimes it can feel like there are a lot of hurdles between where you are now and where you'd like to be. Or maybe you're not sure which path to take. Through Transition to Work, MTC Australia provides intensive and practical support to young people aged 15–21 on their journey to finding a job. Tailored to your needs and delivered by people who understand you, Transition to Work can help you unlock your potential, get a job and start building the life you want.

Who is it For?

Transition to Work helps early school leavers and young people who are finding it hard to secure a job after school. To be eligible, you need to be:

- Aged 15–21
- An Australian citizen or hold a permanent visa, a New Zealand Special Category Visa or a Nominated Visa (including Temporary Protection Visa or Safe Haven Visa)

How it Works

Transition to Work is offered in Parramatta, Auburn and Merrylands and involves 25 hours of support weekly, which you can complete at your own pace. These hours are usually a mix of coaching, education or training, work experience and support from community services, depending on your personal needs and interests.

You'll work one-on-one with your dedicated coach and attend group sessions. Outside of this, we'll stay in close contact with you via email, phone, text message and social media. You will be well supported throughout the entire process.

Why Choose Transition to Work?

▶ A service that's all about you

We will help you identify your work goals and build the self-confidence and skills you need to achieve them. We'll also help you with any personal challenges you may be facing and offer you access to specialised services, such as housing, health, substance abuse, counselling, Indigenous support or refugee and migrant support.

▶ Practical assistance

We're here to help you get a job you really want. To do that we'll contact employers and training institutions on your behalf to find new opportunities, or provide you with a pathway into paid work through volunteering or work experience.

▶ A dedicated coach

You'll get your own Youth Employment Coach who will work with you one-on-one to build your confidence, work towards your goals and tackle challenges.

▶ Respect

You will always feel welcome, safe and included. MTC celebrates the things that make us all unique – including language, culture, age and education level – and we provide quality support and facilities for all our clients.

▶ Ongoing support

Once you've started your new job, we'll stay in close contact with you for the first six months to make sure you're settling in and help you with any issues you may face.
