

jobactive

jobactive is a government-funded initiative that connects job seekers and employers across Australia. Job seekers work with a consultant to identify their work goals and get the training and skills they need. As a leading jobactive provider, MTC Australia provides motivated, job-ready candidates at no cost to your business. You can access a pool of more than 5,000 skilled people throughout Sydney.

MTC Australia has extensive experience sourcing people for temporary and permanent positions across a wide range of industries. Candidates include:

- Experienced blue- and white-collar workers
- Part-time and full-time staff
- Apprentices and trainees
- Candidates with transferrable skills

Who is it For?

All organisations can recruit through jobactive, from sole traders to multinationals. To qualify, all you need is proof of an ABN or ACN.

Get motivated, job-ready candidates at no cost to your business through jobactive at MTC Australia.

How it Works

Our recruitment process is designed to ensure we match the right person to your business. We work with you to understand your needs. We then conduct employment checks, comprehensive skills analysis, interview training and pre-employment training with our candidates, before placing them in a position.

You will also benefit from:

- Personalised, single-point-of-contact account management
- Pre-employment training for job seekers
- Potential wage and training subsidies
- Customised post-placement support for up to six months
- Specific employer required training (eligibility criteria to be met)
